Hello Jewell and all we got your letter was sure glad to hear from you hope every ok for us not much your dad is on the bed he just eat any thing for a while but now he cant eat much of any thing sure dose look bad but he is better than he was yesterday he went to the Dr yesterday and he was weak when he got back he still takes

shots and water tablets and heart tablet I ain't felt well since I had the flu Bet's not wanting to say her baby has got a reason in its head they carried it to the Dr yesterday and the Dr told them to bring it back to I - your Dad has to go back to the Dr tomorrow Looks like all we can see is pills hate has the snow melted off up there it is warm here now 55 or 60 Degrees but last week it was 10 a Base Zero sure glad it has warmed up you was speaking a Boat Xmas I guess it just

Be like any other day no moon no sun & the I'll try and write wid tomorrow if nothing happens that I cant get to it I thought for sure I had wrote her I keep the baby and just do first one thing than a father and I for set to do is my wash dog but it is rained Mildred said all 3 kids Hello tell ann wont be long until she will be catching down & she will put that out where the boys can see it sure is a good picture well it a Bant mail time I'll stop for now over

If your Dad gets any worse I'll let you know so write when you can from your Mom,
Callie
Love always
